A blend of furnishing trends at Casa Pop

Interior designer Raseel Gujral has launched a new luxury brand called Casa Pop in Mumbai, which aims to inject spice, drama and colour to tableware, soft furnishings, furniture pieces, accessories and jewellery.

The brand is an extension of Gujral's existing furniture line called Casa Paradox. The designs are a blend of ancient and international contemporary trends. To view the new range, visit the Casa Paradox store at Raghuvanshi Mills in Lower Parel.
